

StarOffice™ 7 Office Suite

A full-featured, alternative office suite.

Everything You Want In an Office Suite — Including Exceptional Value

The StarOffice™ suite is a full-featured office suite that delivers significant savings before you even install it. It has all the functionality you need for home or office, for a fraction of what you would expect to pay for other popular office suites. The powerful, standalone applications in the StarOffice 7 Office Suite are not only fully integrated, they are also compatible with Microsoft Office, so you can easily access, edit, and share documents. And because StarOffice software is from Sun Microsystems, you can count on world-class service, including free support and free Web-based training. StarOffice software also gives you all the advantages of Sun's commitment to open standards. That means you'll never be locked into a costly upgrade path or computing platform. It's your choice. It's your money. Don't pay more. Get more with the StarOffice 7 Office Suite.

Interoperability

Open, modify, and save Microsoft Office files – easily. With a new Export to PDF feature, you can save or send documents in Portable Document Format without having Acrobat products installed. The StarOffice 7 Office Suite runs on Microsoft Windows, Linux, and the Solaris™ Operating System (OS).

Productivity

The StarOffice offering is a complete, full-featured office productivity suite that has everything you need to create elegant word documents, sophisticated drawings, professional presentations, dynamic spreadsheets, HTML Web publishing, photo editing, and more.

Ease of Use

StarOffice 7 applications are easy and familiar. Even complex jobs are simplified by moving effortlessly from one application to another.

Cost Savings

StarOffice 7 software gives you a feature-rich, full-function office productivity suite for hundreds of dollars less than other popular office suites

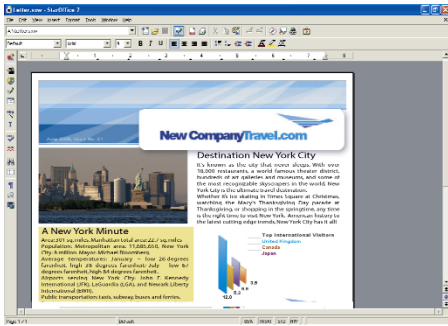

Sun Support

Sun Microsystems backs StarOffice software with a wide array of service options, ranging from free support and free Web-based training to on-site service.

StarOffice 7 Office Suite

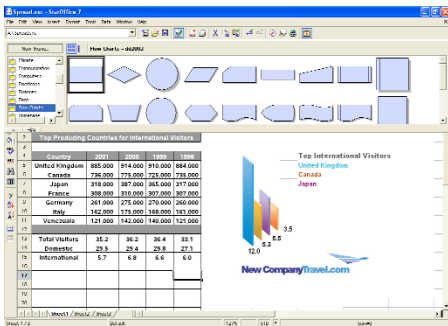

Comprehensive Functionality

All StarOffice applications work together seamlessly, making them easier to learn while making you more productive.

StarOffice Writer

The simple way to create elegant documents. Quickly compose letters, memos, brochures, and more with easy-to-use templates. Create and post rich Web pages without learning HTML. Perform calculations with StarOffice Writer tables and create charts to illustrate the table data. Apply style changes globally using the Stylist. Convert Microsoft Office documents with just a few clicks. Automatic spelling/correction and formatting checks ensure your work is letter perfect.

StarOffice Calc

A powerful spreadsheet program for calculation and analysis. Track, analyze, and summarize complex financial and numeric data with ease. Bring static facts and figures instantly to life using dynamic 3D charts and diagrams. Create realistic "what if" scenarios, so you can access, view, and share information for making faster, better decisions.

StarOffice Impress

Make your point with high-impact presentations. Ready-to-use templates and graphics help you quickly achieve professional-looking presentations. One click changes your presentation to HTML format for publishing to the Web.

StarOffice Draw

Add diagrams and graphics to StarOffice documents with a wide variety of drawing tools and templates. A single click lets you add, create, and edit photorealistic 3D images, as well as control the appearance of shading and other effects.

StarOffice Base

Now, important data is always at your fingertips. Drag and drop your database records into any StarOffice document for easier decision making. Sort, search for, and filter tables, queries, forms, or reports. Powerful AutoPilot and AutoFilter functions quickly guide you through complex tasks, so even mass e-mails, faxes, and mailings are kept updated and simple.

Extensive Clip Art and Templates

Add visual punch and pizzazz to documents and presentations with a great selection of expressive graphics and graphic capabilities. Professionally designed templates help you quickly create great looking documents. From award certificates to lesson plans, financial statements to complex marketing plans, StarOffice software helps translate your ideas into reality.
